

The pathogenesis of COPD and IPF: distinct horns of the same devil?

Abstract submission guidelines

Take part to the International Workshop “The pathogenesis of COPD and IPF: distinct horns of the same devil?” by submitting an abstract.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: April 3, 2018

- Abstract must be submitted in English
- Abstract submission must be completed in doc/docx format
- The abstract must be sent by email to: abstractinternationalworkshop@aiporicerche.it
- The presenting author will be registered (free of charge) as participant to the Workshop
- If accepted, abstract can be presented in poster discussion sessions
- Abstracts must be in the areas of IPF and COPD
- Abstract must contain original data, not previously published or presented, and be free of plagiarism
- Similar abstracts can not be submitted for the same authors
- Abbreviations should be defined

Authors are requested to follow the guidelines as below.

Abstracts should have a clear hypothesis and methodology, list all authors' names and institutions, and designate a corresponding author. The linguistic accuracy of the abstract is the responsibility of the authors.

ABSTRACT TITLE: title should begin with capital letter followed by the lower case lettering. Title length is limited to 100 characters (spaces included).

AUTHORS: some authors' information can be included:

- Authors' full name and surname
- Affiliations: include department, institute/university, city, country
- Name, surname and e-mail address of presenting author

LENGTH: the body of text can be maximum of 300 words and include up to 2 references and 1 figure or table. References and figures/tables do not count towards the total word count.

STRUCTURE: abstracts should be written in a structured format and include:

- BACKGROUND/INTRODUCTION: it should be summarized the current knowledge or “state of the art” in relation to the work.
- OBJECTIVES: it should be stated the aim of the study.
- METHODS: it should be summarized the design of the study, the context in which it was done, the type of patients or measurements that were included.
- RESULTS: this section should describe the main results of the study.
- CONCLUSIONS: this section should summarize findings of the study and their potential implications.

The pathogenesis of COPD and IPF: distinct horns of the same devil?

REFERENCES (optional): authors can insert up to 2 references if considered important for the study. References must be cited as follows: Jones A, et al. Lancet 2012; 378:1-5.

They must be maximum 30 words count.

FIGURE/TABLE: authors can include up to 1 figure OR 1 table. File must be sent in “gif”, “png”, “jpg”, “jpeg” and “xls” (Excel 97-2004) File cannot have more than one figure/table.

DISCLOSURE OF FUNDING SOURCE(S): abstracts must provide the funding source (industry name, grant name, or other applicable funding) if one exist.

Commercial names, trade names and company brands should not be mentioned in the abstract title: however, they may be mentioned in the body of text.

Abstract containing elements that might lead to patient identification shall be disqualified.

EVALUATION:

Abstract submissions will be reviewed by the Review Committee.

PUBLICATION AND COPYRIGHTS:

Authors are required to write an original abstract that fulfills accepted criteria for copyright purposes.

By submitting an abstract, all authors attest that the abstract submitted has not been previously published elsewhere and transfers, assigns, or otherwise conveys all copyright ownership, including any and all rights incidental thereto, exclusively to AIPO Ricerche Srl.

If an author chooses to submit information from an abstract that has previously been presented and/or published, all data must be updated, current, and rewritten in a manner that does not infringe on international copyright laws. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to include any copyrighted material in their abstract presentations. All authors will be required to agree to a copyright assignment statement when submitting an abstract.

CONTACT: for any information or assistance please contact:

Sabrina Indovino | Responsabile Eventi

T +39 02 36590356 | F +39 02 67382337

Email - Sabrina Indovino

Via A. da Recanate, 2 - 20124 - MILANO

Web site AIPORICERCHE

Web site AIPONET

Web site AIPOINT